How do you destroy liberty in a mighty nation? It's easy!

- 1. Patiently, corrupt the judicial system, making denial of conscience mandatory for all members therein.
- 2. Thereafter, make evil and injustice "legal", and profitable.
- 3. Persecute "troublemakers" who choose to abide by conscience. Prosecute, "in the name of the law", those who will not acquiesce to tyranny. Assassinate those who stubbornly persist in abiding by Truth and conscience, especially if they become influential.
- 4. Subdue the great cowering masses of goyan using tools of blind patriotism, of intimidation and fear-based "respect" for unjust secular laws, of an Unconstitutional private bank controlled monetary system built upon "legalized" greed and extortion, of exportation of vital manufacturing industries and the livelihoods they support, of engineered ignorance in public educational systems, of psychological manipulations and misinformation widely dispensed, of discrediting all "religion" based value systems (Christianity especially), of apathy and cowardice rationalized by belief in "pre-destination" or the false dogma that "bad things" only happen to bad people, of public disarmament, of widespread citizen surveillance, of bribery or threats, and distractions of all kinds so as to enable the clandestine and unrelenting efforts to successfully secure the shackles of slavery before the victims realize the magnitude of the doom that soon awaits them and their posterity.

After the shackles are latched, suppress all history and knowledge of liberty, freedom, truth, and justice ... destroy all who dare give voice to any thoughts from conscience. When this is done, 1% will enslave 99%, and the "Illuminated Ones" who have long toiled in secret, will reveal themselves knowing that all opposition is now vanquished.

America is now (2010) most of the way through step 4. Wake up!

- 1. "In a world of universal deceit, telling the truth becomes a revolutionary act".

George Orwell

- 2. "The pen is mightier than the sword."

1. Edward Bulwer-Lytton

3. Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.”
 - i. 1st amendment, US Constitution

4. Is there any real difference between our government willfully violating our Constitution directly, and “the government” allowing, instigating, or supporting those within the private sector to violate our Constitution?

5. “Truth can be suppressed, justice denied, liberty and freedom destroyed with equal ease, in the name of “the law”, in the name of "patriotism", in the name of "science", or in the name of "god”.

6. “The most precious fruit of the womb of our universe is good character developed in somewhat intelligent, self-aware, free-willed beings possessing conscience and the power of choice, whatever form they may take. Everything we perceive exists to support this end.”

“Conscience”, that ignorable faint subtle voice within the human mind, comes from our Creator. It illuminates the narrow path of Truth and justice that leads to Him. The blessing, or curse, of the gift of freedom of choice, and knowledge of good and evil, enlists all into a war that is impossible to evade. This “war” is a prerequisite of things to come.

7. If a conflict between personal conscience and secular law arises, which is the correct and just path to take?

8. “Capitalism without conscience is little more than rabid, legalized greed that empowers the wealthy to extort from and enslave the poor.”

9. No faction, especially a powerful one, is capable of objectively and effectively policing the competency and integrity of its members. Camaraderie and self-interest will virtually always suppress truth and conscience.

- 10. Who is guarding the guardians of truth, justice and liberty?
- 11. No mortal man is all good, or all bad. Our present station is much less important than the direction we have chosen to travel in. Do not become stagnant. Do not waste time comparing yourself to those behind you. Compare yourself to yourself yesterday. Seek out and be inspired by others ahead of you on the good path.
- 12.
Genuine science and genuine religion are complimentary, not contradictory. Both seek Truth and understanding. Conflicts are indicative of errors in understanding, on either or both sides. One path is limited by pride and intellect, the other by pride and disingenuous faith.
- 13. To not actively oppose injustice and evil is to support it.
- 14. The greatest leaders are the greatest servants of their subordinates. What you know is much less important than what you choose to do with what you know. To the ends that really matter, an individual lacking advanced degrees can far out perform many individuals possessing many PhD's.
- 15. "Avarice and ambition would break the strongest cords of our Constitution as a whale goes through a net. Our Constitution is made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."
John Adams
- 16. "Is life so dear or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God. I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"
Patrick Henry
- 17. Enlighten the people, generally, and tyranny and oppressions of body and mind will vanish like spirits at the dawn of day.
a. Thomas Jefferson
- 18. "They define a republic to be a government of laws, and not of men. "
John Adams
- 19. Modern day America is not a nation of law. It has become a nation of lawyers seeking out personal agendas under the pretext of law.
A.R.

20. “Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There never was a democracy yet that did not commit suicide.”

John Adams

21. Do you believe it is possible for a lawyer, judge, or politician to be a criminal? If “no”, why not? If “yes”, what willful behavior defines criminal conduct?

22. What are the personal consequences for a lawyer, judge, or politician who chooses to violate his oath to “protect, preserve and defend” the Constitution?

23. Do you believe a legal/political system, if dominated by criminals, is conducive to the protection and maintenance of truth, justice, liberty and freedom?

24. The public cannot be too curious concerning the characters of public men.
Samuel Adams

25. Do you believe it is possible for a secular legal system, and organized crime, to become one and the same?

26. Under what circumstances is it acceptable for a lawyer to blatantly lie to, or in any other way mislead or deceive a client?

27. Is the outcome of any legal proceeding valid if collusion and/or willful suppression of relevant facts have taken place?

28. Does “secular law” really exist if lawyers, judges and politicians are free to choose which laws to enforce based upon their personal motives, values, agendas and/or a client or constituents’ willingness or ability to pay?

29. “Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever persuasion, religious or political.”

Thomas Jefferson

30. Is the relinquishment of the trial by jury and the liberty of the press necessary for your liberty? Will the abandonment of your most sacred rights tend to the security of your liberty? Liberty, the greatest of all earthly blessings - give us that precious jewel, and you may take every things else! Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect every one who approaches that jewel.

Patrick Henry

31. Is the outcome of any legal proceeding valid if lawyers and/or judges have willfully hidden conflicts of interest that would affect their objectivity, refusing to disqualify themselves, as they are morally and legally obligated to do?

32. Under what circumstances is it acceptable for members of the legal/political system to deny even one citizen basic Constitutional rights?

33. Do you believe justice can be served by a legal system that conducts its business behind closed doors, away from public scrutiny, and “off the record”?

34. Under what circumstances is it acceptable for a lawyer or judge to threaten a citizen with fines or reprisals for exercising fundamental Constitutional rights?

35. Who is the greater criminal, the individual or group of individuals who strive to deprive others of fundamental rights and liberties, or the members of the legal/political system who make this possible and “legal”, while profiting, often handsomely, for their betrayals of oath and public trust?

36. Under what conditions is selective enforcement of the law acceptable?

37. What is the difference between selective enforcement of the law, and tyranny?

38. Do you believe the legal system treats the poor and politically weak citizens with the same degree of care and service as those who are wealthy and politically powerful?

39. Is a lawyer, judge or politician personally accountable to their clients or constituents for the damage caused by their incompetence or willful neglect? If “no”, why not? If “yes”, what mechanism exists to bring this justice about?

- 40. Is not incompetence and corruption within a legal system indicative of ineffective and/or a biased policing mechanism(s)?
- 41. Do you believe it is possible for those who make and/or administer “the law” do so in a manner so as to empower and enrich themselves, while simultaneously creating “laws” and circumstances that make them immune from personal accountability for the destruction and injustice caused by their betrayals of trust?
- 42. What is the origin of the widespread paradigm whereby employers are assumed to be “right” and employees “wrong” if a conflict arises between the two?
- 43. What is the origin of, and motive behind the nation wide “Employment at Will” law?
- 44. Does not the "Employment at Will" law negate many fundamental unalienable rights of citizens, requiring them to abandon personal conscience and basic rights as a condition of employment, or continued employment? Is this not a form of slavery? Is this not a violation of our Constitution?
- 45. Slavery naturally tends to destroy all sense of justice and equity. It puffs up the mind with pride: teaches youth a habit of looking down upon their fellow creatures with contempt, esteeming them as dogs or devils, and imagining themselves beings of superior dignity and importance, to who all are indebted. This banishes the idea, and unqualified the mind for the practice of common justice.

David Rice

- 46. What forms of slavery are acceptable?
- 47. How often does good come from “legal-political power” exercised in secret, and/or “off the record”?
- 48. Is it not an honor to be held in contempt by those who are contemptible?
- 49. “Cherish, therefore, the spirit of our people, and keep alive their attention. Do not be too severe upon their errors, but reclaim them by enlightening them. If once they become inattentive to the public affairs, you and I, and Congress, and Assemblies, Judges, and Governors, shall all become wolves. “
- Thomas Jefferson
- 50. Have not the passing decades in America proven that a flaw exists in our Constitution? A flaw our founders were aware of, but lacked the technology to correct. That flaw manifests itself as an exponentially growing lack of accountability for those within our governing structures, especially the Judiciary. The election process is too infrequent and too easily manipulated by powerful special interest groups. Our lawyers and judges have granted themselves “exclusive right to interpret the law” such that they can do as they please and call their personal agendas “law”. A corrupt and self-serving Judiciary encourages the corruption and degradation of all other forms of public service, as well as the public in general. Do they not set the examples for others to follow?

- 51. Do you believe it is possible to deceive, manipulate, control and extort from large numbers of people for long periods of time?
- 52. “The oppressed are allowed once every few years to decide which particular representatives of the oppressing class are to represent and repress them.”
Karl Marx
- 53. Do you believe it would be unpatriotic or detrimental to the cause of liberty and freedom, to consider learning about and participating in a new political party? A new party that is in harmony with the original spirit and intent of the US Constitution; a party that is in harmony with Truth and conscience; one that is bold and honest enough to acknowledge the fatal flaw in our Constitution that has allowed us to come to the state of affairs we are now in; one that offers a viable solution to fix this flaw forever.
- 54. The best repository of genuine justice, liberty and freedom lies in the hands of an enlightened, informed and empowered people guided by their collective conscience. Where government fears the people, freedom and liberty reign. Where people fear government, tyranny prevails. A republic based upon genuine and effective public oversight, referencing moral principals that have proven themselves fair and just through the ages, is the best tool to undermine and prevent tyranny. No greater moral principals exist than the elevation of Truth above all things, and the stewardship that comes from treating others as you would want to be treated. These are the greatest and simplest of all laws. All other good laws are in harmony with these. Armies of lawyers, judges, politicians, and soldiers would become obsolete, if all men chose to follow these two simple rules. Poverty, extortion, waste, greed, war and disease would become nearly extinct upon the earth. Prosperity, justice and liberty for all would reach heights previously unknown.

55. Law and liberty cannot rationally become the objects of our love, unless they first become the objects of our knowledge.

James Wilson

56. Children should be educated and instructed in the principles of freedom.

John Adams

57. Do you believe it is possible for powerful secret organizations that perhaps seek to control this entire planet, to slowly and clandestinely infiltrate key segments of societies so as to methodically undermine truth, justice, liberty and freedom by gaining control over major media, educational, legal/political, military, financial and religious systems?

58. Are not the greatest conspiracies those which are successful at convincing the masses that they are a foolish myth, so as to cause the few who seriously and objectively investigate them to be ridiculed and ignored, and thereafter easy targets of abuse?

59. Just because they CLAIM you are paranoid, does not mean they are not out to get you.

i. Bill Carson

60. Criminal investigators know from experience that primary suspects, and often times the real culprits of any criminal event, are those who profit from that event. Common sense. Did Saddam Hussein, Osama Bin Laden, the Taliban, Al Qaeda, or the peoples of Iraq or Afghanistan profit from 9-11? NO! Do you know who did?

61. What was the reason for the establishment of "No Fault Divorce" laws? Who profits and who loses by this "domestic market" created by lawyers? Do not typical wedding vows contain all the ingredients of a legally binding contract?

62. Imagine a world where the controlling powers' first genuine priority was the well-being of everyone and everything else around them. Just imagine. Do not all created things begin in a mind? Dominion of this earth is ours at the moment. Should we not strive to grant conscientious and honorable minds the opportunity to acquire and maintain positions of authority and control? Should we not be unrelentingly vigilant in removing tyrants from positions of authority and control?

- 63. The greatest Evil is a master manipulator who dwells in the shadows. Always seeking to hide and work through others, many of who are genuinely good individuals that don't understand what is really guiding them. This evil grows by enticing, manipulating and entrapping the hearts and minds of men with promises of wealth, fame, power, glory and special privileges. Evil rarely practices sudden blatant bold works of destruction and injustice, as this would awaken the sleeping giant, although arrogance and pride embolden him as he nears completion of his plan. Evil actions are always accompanied by and made more acceptable through clever distractions; through appeals to patriotism, security, and self-defense. Who is the "sleeping giant"? If you are an individual who acknowledges and abides by conscience, and has come to know the joy and power of Truth.... if you are an individual willing to objectively consider the validity of the things you have just read...YOU ARE!
- 64. "But a Constitution of Government once changed from Freedom, can never be restored. Liberty, once lost, is lost forever."
i. John Adams
- 65. "Insanity" is doing the same thing over and over, expecting different results. Maybe it's time to consider something different.
- 66. If you love Truth, justice and liberty, please help develop the "The Everlasting Liberty Party".
